

GuidanceResources® Online: Now Better Than Ever

We have redesigned our award-winning website, GuidanceResources Online, to make it even easier for you to get the information and tools you need, whenever you need them.

What's new?

The GuidanceResources Online landing page is now streamlined to make it easier to find what you need quickly. At the top of the page, a new navigation bar organizes key functions into a dropdown menu of topics that correspond to the many facets of your life, whether at work, at home or on the road. Selecting a menu item, such as child care or career development, takes you directly to a page containing popular resources related to all aspects of your topic. Or use the search bar to customize your requests.

Not sure what exactly you're looking for? The ResourceRecommender can help. With a couple of clicks, the Recommender guides you in the right direction, whether you're looking for emotional support, help with issues related to work-life balance, legal, financial or physical health, or any other topic. All the resources, including articles, guides, podcasts and On-Demand trainings, are delivered to your screen, allowing you to choose the format most helpful to you.

The new GuidanceResources Online: same great content in a more engaging, easier-to-navigate format. Check it out today at guidanceresources.com.
